RUSTENBURG GIRLS' JUNIOR SCHOOL PART-TIME VIOLIN TEACHER To commence: 21 July 2026

Rustenburg Girls' Junior School is seeking a passionate and skilled Part-Time Violin Teacher to join its vibrant Music Department from 21 July 2026.

The department is a distinctive and dynamic space that embraces innovation, creativity, and growth, and plays an important role in nurturing a love of music among young learners. This independent contracted position, dependent on learner numbers, is anticipated to be approximately 3 or 5 days per week, with potential for growth within the programme.

The successful applicant will be an exceptional individual who will:

- Hold a recognised music qualification or equivalent teaching experience.
- Show a genuine passion for developing the violin programme within the school environment.
- Inspire and nurture a love of music in young learners.
- Demonstrate excellence in violin teaching across a range of levels.
- Prepare students for performances, assessments, and examinations as required.
- Work collaboratively as part of a passionate and professional Music Department team.
- Have proven success in teaching violin to primary-aged learners.
- Demonstrate strong communication and organisational skills.
- Show commitment to the ethos and values of Rustenburg Girls' Junior School.

Please email the Head of the Music Department, Musichead@rgjs.org.za, with your CV and two contactable references by 13:00 on Wednesday, 10th June 2026. You are also required to complete the Application for Employment form to be considered for the above position.

Rustenburg Junior School for Girls is committed to providing equal opportunities and practising affirmative action employment. The school reserves the right not to proceed with the filling of the post. An application in itself does not entitle the applicant to an interview. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.
