

PIANO and VIOLIN TEACHER
FULL-TIME POSITION – SGB POST

STARTING DATE: 8 April 2026

Jeppe High School for Girls is an English medium monastic school situated in Kensington, Johannesburg. Educators, learners and parents collaborate as partners in education, committed to academic excellence and individual development.

The school's aim is to create well-rounded, enquiring young women who will be able to think critically and engage constructively with others. Girls are encouraged to contribute to the community and value their role in South African society.

Jeppe Girls seeks the services of a full-time piano teacher with a passion for music education to work under the auspices of our Music department.

Responsibilities will include but not be limited to the following:

- The teaching of individual piano and violin lessons
- The teaching of theory and/or General Music Knowledge group classes
- Keeping students excited and motivated to learn, practise and achieve their full potential
- All general administrative tasks as per school requirements
- Be involved in the Music department extra-mural program (Marimba group, Choir accompaniment and rehearsal pianist, playing piano at school assemblies etc.)
- Preparing students for concerts, examinations and performances

Minimum requirements

- BMus degree or suitable Music qualification
- Sound musical knowledge of tutor books, repertoire and teaching methods for piano and violin
- Understanding of teaching students with different styles of learning and from a variety of backgrounds
- Well-developed communication, planning and organisational skills
- Computer literate
- PGCE and a SACE number would be an advantage

Interested candidates are invited to send a letter of motivation and a detailed CV with two recent contactable references to:
